10 lessons in English for Legal Practice

This course is designed for:

- legal practitioners and their assistants
- business executives, contractors and negotiators
- company secretarial and administrative staff who deal with legal matters
- students of law and business administration

The 10 specialised lessons cover the essential language used in areas such as:

- legal principles and practice
- international law
- legal concepts, rights and obligations
- negotiating contracts and agreements
- company and commercial law
- interviewing and advising clients
- considering evidence and preparing a brief
- presenting your case and arguing points of law
- conferences, meetings and presentations

Additional study:

Homework (written assignments, preparation and revision) is an integral part of the course. We also recommend that some time should be devoted to additional study in the Multi-Media Learning Centre. An extensive selection of computer programs, listening materials, CD Roms, films and reference material is available for private use, including free access to the Internet. Wireless Internet Access is also available on campus.

* Course participants may elect to take their 20 lessons of general English language tuition in the Executive Centre (Course S-6.30E) with an average of 2 students (maximum 4) at extra cost. Full details are in the 2017 Prospectus on page 26.
