IELTS Test Preparation

- Learn English for work, study or pleasure
- Students from all over the world
- Focus on language, skills and communication
- Learn and use English in realistic situations
- Regular progress tests and tutorials

Course Description:

Our IELTS Preparation courses are for people with a good level of English who want to make further progress in the language whilst preparing for the IELTS test, for work, study or immigration.

At Burlington School, we have been preparing our students for the IELTS test for many years, and we have an in-depth knowledge of needs of candidates and the demands of the test. Our IELTS Preparation course is designed to meet these needs.

We believe there are three main areas that students should work on when preparing for any test: overall language improvement, specific exam-related language improvement (this includes the grammar and vocabulary that the exam focuses on, as well as study skills and exam skills), and authentic exam practice.

The classes have an integrated approach to the IELTS test, and include work on language and skills, including grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation, speaking, listening, reading and writing.

Students can add to these lessons in the elective classes. These classes build on the work covered in the main classes, focussing on specific sections of the test as well as overall fluency.

Exam fees are not included in the price of our course - see our price list, or contact us for information about exam fees and dates.

Course Content:

The classes use a range of methodologies and activities to help students learn and use the language. The classes use a set coursebook, and these are supplemented with authentic materials, video and interactive technology.

Every two weeks there is a practice test in class, which helps the teachers identify students' strengths and weakness, and allows the students to check their progress and to give students authentic practice under exam conditions.

Course Content:

All our lessons give students the opportunity to learn and use English in realistic situations, and our teachers give regular homework to help them practice. The courses are designed to teach students the language skills they need for a career in their sector.

In addition, students work on projects, which can be related to their job or based on work within their classes. Students are given support and assistance to research subjects in English, and they then use this research to give presentations, write reports or hold negotiations and meetings in the school.

There are regular progress tests and tutorials, which helps the teachers identify students' strengths and weakness, and allows the students to check their progress in English.

Please contact the school for further information about specific courses.

Elective Classes

- Further practise in reading, writing, listening and speaking
- Learn skills for exams
- Learn the skills you need for study
- Learn the communication skills you need for work

As part of the General English, Business English, IELTS Test Preparation and Cambridge English Exam Preparation courses, we offer a range of elective classes. The classes are designed to build on the language and skills students study in their other classes and give students the freedom to focus on the skills that they need the most.

These classes form part of our 20, 25, 30, 35 and 40-lesson courses, but students are able to take the classes separately, either as an upgrade to their current course, or as a course in their own right.

We offer the following elective classes:

SPEAKING AND LISTENING

The classes use a variety of techniques, including role plays, debates and discussions, to develop students' speaking and listening skills in informal and formal contexts. The classes give students the chance to communicate with other students of different nationalities in authentic and semi-authentic contexts.

Students who take our Speaking and Listening Electives...

- are more confident in their use of English
- can understand people speaking English in a range of situations
- can speak English in a range of situations

READING AND WRITING

The classes give students the opportunity to read a range of material taken from authentic sources, including news stories, magazine articles and academic texts, and to improve their skills in reading for detail and reading for gist. The classes also give students the language and techniques to write texts in a range of informal and formal styles in response to what they have read, or to class discussions.

Students who take our Reading and Writing Electives...

- are more confident in their use of English
- can understand a range of written texts covering familiar and unfamiliar topics
- can write in English in a range of situations and a range of genres

IELTS SKILLS

The classes help students acquire the skills needed to successfully take the IELTS test, using a range of materials including test material and specially-designed exercises. The classes focus on all parts of the test, and look at skills including reading for argument, note-taking, summarising data in academic writing, and speaking about hypothetical situations in the past and future. The classes are designed for people either taking our IELTS Test Preparation course, or as an introduction for people thinking about taking the test in the future.

Students who take our IELTS Skills Electives...

- are more confident in their use of English
- are more confident in the skills needed to take the IELTS test
- have an enhanced foundation of the skills required for study in an English-speaking environment

Thank you for this amazing course. I started in March and I just finished it. Burlington is the best school of English in London. See you.

Marta from Spain

CAMBRIDGE SKILLS

The classes help students acquire the skills needed to successfully take one of the Cambridge English Examinations - Preliminary (PET), First (FCE), Advanced (CAE) or Proficiency (CPE), using a range of materials including exam material and specially-designed exercises. The classes focus on all parts of the exam and look at skills including expressing opinions (written and spoken), reading for overall meaning, and listening for specific detail. The classes are designed for people either taking one of our Cambridge English Exam Preparation courses, or as an introduction for people thinking about taking a Cambridge English Examination in the future.

Students who take our Cambridge Skills Electives...

- are more confident in their use of English
- are more confident in the skills needed to take the Cambridge English Examinations
- can use English in a range of situations

BUSINESS COMMUNICATION

The classes give students the opportunity to develop the communication skills they need to succeed in a modern business environment. The classes include practice and skills for taking part in meetings and negotiations, reading and responding to emails, writing reports and much more. The classes are designed for people either taking one of our Business English courses, or for people who want to learn some business communication skills in addition to their General English or Exam Preparation course.

Students who take our Business Communication Electives...

- are more confident in their use of English
- have enhanced skills to communicate in meetings, interviews and negotiations
- have enhanced skills to write reports, emails and proposals

BRITISH CULTURE

The classes give students the opportunity to use their English to learn about aspects of London, Britain and British culture. Using materials including videos, news stories and real-life experiences the classes allow students to practise and improve their English, while learning more about the country they are studying in.

Students who take our British Culture Electives...

- are more confident in their use of English
- can use English in a range of situations
- are more familiar with the culture and history of Britain

One-to-One and Small Groups

- Further practise in reading, writing, listening and speaking
- Learn skills for exams
- Learn the skills you need for study
- Learn the communication skills you need for work

Course Description:

Our 1-1 and Small Group courses are for individuals or small groups who have specific goals and needs, or who want to make particularly rapid progress in English. Courses can be taken on their own, or in combination with one of our standard or online courses.

The lessons are designed to work on any areas of weakness you have, and to enable you to make rapid progress in the language. They will help students develop confidence and fluency in their use of English.

Our 1-1 courses are designed to meet your individual needs, and help you achieve your goals and develop the language that you need for work, study or leisure.

Our Small Group Courses are designed for groups of 2, 3 or 4 students with the same level of English who have similar needs and goals in English.

We can offer courses in General English, Exam Preparation, Business English or English for Specific Purposes - in fact, anything you want.

We can also offer classes in specific subjects taught in English using a Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) approach

Leisure Programme

London is one of the most attractive cities in the world. It can keep you busy 24/7. If you join the Burlington School leisure programme it will give you a chance to make friends and give you a taste of what London has to offer.

Example activities:

- Walking tours
- Visits to the main London attractions and Museums (London Eye, Madame Tussauds, Buckingham Palace, the Tower of London, Natural History Museum and many more)
- Sports activities
- Music events and carnivals
- Parties

You may want a break away from London at some point so why not join us on one of the day trips to:

- Oxford
- Brighton
- Cambridge
- Bath and Stonehenge

And many more!

Experience more of what the United Kingdom has to offer. As there is much to do in London Burlington School gets a helping hand from professional tourist agencies that will maximise your experience with us.

Some activities are free of charge while an average entrance ticket to London attractions cost £15 – £20, and if you wish to take an adventure outside of London a day trip will cost from £30 – £40.

Our Leisure Programme changes every month so please let us know what you would like to do! Please note that students must be 18 or over to attend certain activities.

Please visit our website and check our leisure activities planner or contact the Leisure Programme coordinator at the school for all up-to-date information.

Burlington School offers a range of accommodation to suit everybody's needs. The following pages give a summary of our accommodation, but if you have any particular requests, please contact us.

Homestay Accommodation

Homestay accommodation is the cheapest option for staying in London, and gives you the chance to experience life in a British home. Homestay providers treat the student as a full member of the household, eating together and sharing the common living areas. No more than four students stay in a homestay at any one time.

Burlington School's Homestay providers may be organised by the school directly, or by a third-party accommodation agency.

I studied at Burlington School of English, and my mark is EXCELLENT. All was amazing! The education was good. We studied new grammar. It was very easy to go from the centre of London to school. They found for me amazing accommodation, 1 minute to the underground station!
